

2022 Nanticoke River Jamboree Participants

Living History and Crafts People

Chesapeake Independent Blues 18th Century Historical Interpreters
Jerome Bias and Janice Canaday - Open Hearth Cooking
Janice Green as Harriet Tubman
Marvin Alonzo Greer – “Bound for Freedom” and the Underground Railroad
Gina Gerhard – Wool spinning in East Parlor
LaSara Kinser – African American medicinal herbs
Roberta Perkins -- Handsell Laundress
Aleta Davis – Crocheted rugs
Mark Williams - Blacksmith
For Woodness Sake – 18th c. Woodworking
Paradise Brooms
Lady Aimee’s Fine Sewing and Sutlery
Art Malestein as “Christopher Nutter, Indian Trader”
David Rose as “Thomas Taylor” - Handsell Trading Post
Walter and Kathy Singer – Musicians in West Parlor
Linda Harris, David Cole and Justine Pryor – Code Songs at the Memorial to the Enslaved
Major General James A. Adkins (Ret). Representing the Maryland 400

Environmental, Non-Profits, Authors and Museums

Barbara Lockhart --author
Dorchester Citizens for Planned Growth and Nanticoke Watershed Alliance
Harriet Tubman UGRR State Park – “Marbles”
UGRR National Historic Park – Sack Races!
Nanticoke Historic Preservation Alliance – Handsell Info and Merchantile (fundraiser)
Nanticoke Watershed Alliance
Shore Rivers
Writer’s Bloc
“Tilley’s Escape” – display in the Handsell parlor

Native American

Terry Crannell - Artifact Collection
Pocomoke Indian Nation with Phillip Goldsborough and
Drew Shuptar-Rayvis - Cultural Ambassadors of the Pocomoke Indian Nation
Nause Waiwash Band of Indians
Herman Jackson of the Nanticokes, Milford DE
Handsell’s Chicone Village Volunteers
Tiger Den – Sue Meddling

Volunteer Groups

Boy Scouts of American Troop # 1091 – Admission and Parking volunteers