

2023 Nanticoke River Jamboree Participants

Living History and Crafts People

Chesapeake Independent Blues 18th Century Historical Interpreters
Janice and Ann Canaday - Open Hearth Cooking
LaSara Kinser – African American Medicinal Herbs and Foraging Walk
Roberta Perkins -- Handsell Laundress
Aleta Davis – Crocheted rugs
Mark Williams – Blacksmith
Donna Satterlee – corn husk dolls and children’s activities
Paradise Brooms
Sue Broom – Herbal Fabric Dyeing
Malinda Cecil – Kitchen Herbs
Raymond Dillon – wood bird houses
David Rose as “the Towne Cryer”
“Notes on History Tent” – Music from Three Cultures featuring 19th century music by Ampersand,
Native Flutist Shane Rader and Tim Lucas and Code Songs by Linda Harris and David Cole
Swedish Philly Phish – period music
Plein Aire Painting display and sale

Environmental, Non-Profits, Authors and Museums

Chris Slaven – author of “1742”
Harriet Tubman UGRR State Park – “Marbles”
UGRR National Historic Park – Sack Races!
Preservation Maryland
Maryland Humanities Council “One Maryland One Book”
Nanticoke Historic Preservation Alliance – Handsell Info and Merchantile (fundraiser)
“Women in History – display in the Handsell parlor

Native American

Terry Crannell - Artifact Collection
Pocomoke Indian Nation with Phillip Goldsborough
Shane Rader
Matt Howard
Nause Waiwash Band of Indians
Herman Jackson of the Nanticokes, Milford DE
Dawn Manyfeathers – Lenni Lenape of New Jersey
Roy Saunders – Native Fry Bread and more
Teresa Collins in the Parlor – Native Beadwork
Lucia Lucas – Indigenous Naturalist
Lindsay Gould Taylor – Native Pine Needle Baskets
Handsell’s Chicone Village Volunteers

That Kitchen Food Truck – all day food and drinks!

Volunteer Groups

Boy Scouts of American Troop # 1091 – Admission and Parking volunteers

